The NDAESP is happy to announce that it will be providing on-line registration for the graduate credit being offered through the University of North Dakota for the NSAESP Winter Conference being held in Grand Forks, ND February 1-3. You may access the "Leading the Way" Graduate Credit Syllabus to see the course requirements for earning an S/U graduate credit. If you are attending the conference and get a workshop credit, you may register for the conference by following the instructions provided below:

Instructions To Register for UND Credit

Registration will be available online from now until midnight, February 21, 2012.

1. Go to www.educators.und.edu and Click on "Upcoming Workshops."
2. Select "Grand Forks" from the "View by City" drop down screen.
3. Scroll down and select the course title from the alphabetical listing (NDAESP Mid-Winter Conference, T&L 900).
4. Use the secure online registration form to complete your registration and make payment.

Payment options include: Online (credit card or e-check); Mail Check to UND (address is provided)

Please note - Registrations are not complete until payment is received. When mailing in a check to UND, do so immediately after going online to register. Payment must be received within two weeks from the time you submit your online registration, or your registration will be canceled.

You may register for the workshop credit via your computer any time on-site during the conference or after the conference until February 21st. However, you must complete the "Leading the Way" Grad Credit Evaluation form and either turn in the evaluation form at the close of the conference on Friday or submit a completed hard copy or email attachment by no later than February 21st to:
